II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

What is the basis for federal court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)

Federal question Diversity of citizenship

Fill out the paragraphs in this section that apply to this case.

A. If the Basis for Jurisdiction Is a Federal Question

List the specific federal statutes, federal treaties, and/or provisions of the United States Constitution that are at issue in this case.

The 13th Amendment of the US Constitution. My US Constitutional right to privacy.

State of (name) _____.

b. If the plaintiff is a corporation

under the laws of the State of (name) _____, and has its principal place of business in the State of (name)
_____.

(If more than one plaintiff is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional plaintiff.)

2. The Defendant(s)a. If the defendant is an individual

The defendant, (name) _____, is a citizen of the State of (name) _____ . Or is a citizen of (foreign nation) _____.

b. If the defendant is a corporation

The defendant, (name) _____, is incorporated under the laws of the State of (name) _____, and has its principal place of business in the State of (name) _____.
Or is incorporated under the laws of (foreign nation) _____,
and has its principal place of business in (name) _____.

(If more than one defendant is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional defendant.)

3. The Amount in Controversy

The amount in controversy—the amount the plaintiff claims the defendant owes or the amount at stake—is more than $75,000, not counting interest and costs of court, because (explain):

III. Statement of Claim

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State as briefly as possible the facts showing that each plaintiff is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how each defendant was involved and what each defendant did that caused the plaintiff harm or violated the plaintiff's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

I am being used too work for no pay. My right to privacy is being violated. It is actually more people, over time I am unable to find peoples addresses. The harm started in 1976, and, I do not know who started it. Recently, I have been able to find out that currently Paul Joseph Kostuch is watching me on camera and using me for work. Last summer, two employees, Alex and Alec from Touchstone Mental Health were doing the same. Some time within a year or two after 2006, Dr. Christopher Foss was doing the same. Around the same time Dr. Rodelio Bucu was doing the same. Within a year or two of 2006 Laurie Leabhart was doing the same. (1 page attached)

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages.

I ask relief of not being watched on camera. I still feel pain from being watched on camera by Paul Joseph Kostuch. I ask in payment one sextillion. The basis for the money is that I have been used with out permission: to be watched and used for other peoples problems for over 42 years. How I know they are other peoples problems are that the pain I feel is absurdly beyond what I should feel. My Father, Joseph Paul Kostuch weights much more than me. My Father has fallen recently and had stitches in his head and says that does not hurt. I have no injuries and hurt extreme. The basis for not being watched, is I have a right to privacy.

Claim attachment

Laurie Leabhart was also playing a game on a computer when I entered her office, when she got so to speak "a positive score on the game", I hurt. Currently Paul Joseph Kostuch is doing the same.
